Wow! I can't believe how fast this summer is flying by! Only 24 days until County Fair starts!!

I want to start this newsletter by thanking our sheep superintendent Dana Pearce for organizing the first sheep and pig clinic and Jackpot. This event was a huge success! Thank you to the Forsness family for bringing your grill up and cooking lunch for us both days and everyone else who helped make this event a success. I know I can't wait for next year!

Congratulations to all members who participated in County Shoot! Members work hard all year to prepare for this event and everyone did a great job! Thank you to Brett Sayer, Mark and Sharon Kayser, Mark and Brenda Beutler, Mick Kaser, Chris Lamb and all other leaders who work hard to make sure that our youth are given this great opportunity and are safe when doing so.

This last month members also traveled to Showcase Showdown to compete at the state level in a variety of project areas. Members competed in robotics, presentation, Hippology, cake decorating, table setting, and horse judging. We also had Cloverbuds attend the Coverbud day camp! It was a great event and Sheridan county was well represented!

In addition Sheridan County Junior Leaders hosted our annual mountain camp! This event was a lot of fun and great time for everyone involved. Members got to build their leadership skills.

This year we are participating in the Farmers Market again. Please get signed up for a day if your haven't done so already.

We are also having a float in the WYO Rodeo parade to advertise for County Fair. Please, if you have an animal you want to bring; run it by me so we don't flood the parade. We will be decorating our float Wednesday & Thursday night (8th & 9th) at 5:00 p.m.—Sheridan County Fairgrounds. The theme is "Paint The Town Red", so make sure to bring your red clothes to wear and show off your projects!

Also remember that you need to get your county fair entries in by July 13th! You can sign up for County fair online at <http://sheridancountyfair.fairentry.com> or turn in your entries at the office. Please see next page for further instruction.

Good luck to you all at State Shoot, County Fair and any other competitions this month!!

Good judges will want to see that you have learned more than just how to make a project. They want to see evidence of the Do, Reflect, Apply! You DO your project prior to fair, but interview judging then gives you a chance to REFLECT on your project. You get to tell about what you did, how you did as well as what went good or not so good along the way. You also get to tell them what you learned from your experience and how you might APPLY what you learned to shape new goals for the future.

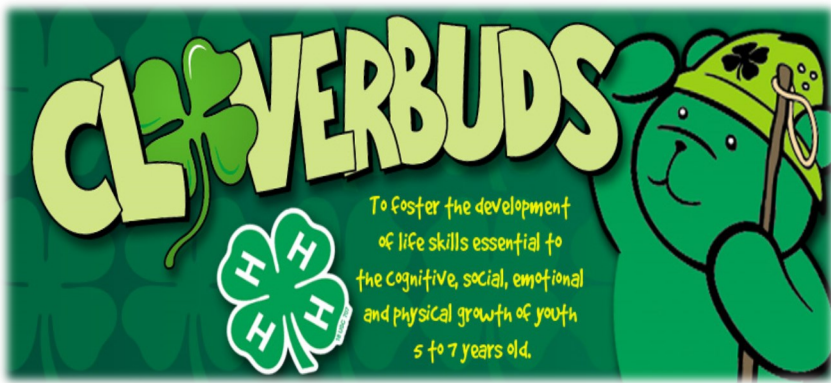

Why is experiential learning so important?

In order to retain the most from what you learned, you need to practice by doing and then teach others! So, during interview judging, judges may ask questions that help you to think through what you did in your project as well as describing the steps along the way. In turn, that helps you better retain what you have learned.

Interview Judging

Questions you might be asked

- What did you think you might learn from taking this project?
- What did you like most about this project? Least?
- Did anyone help you decide what your project might be?
- What new things did you learn?
- How do you plan to use what you made?
- What would you like to learn next year?
- What was the most difficult part of your project?
- What other things did you do in this project?
- What did you learn about yourself?
- What did you learn about your decision making skills?

WYOMING CHARACTER

that's what we're made of

Fairness

What is fairness?

- Being open minded—listens to others & tries to understand what they are saying.
- Plays by the rules.
- Treats others fairly.
- Does not take advantage of others.
- Takes turns and shares.
- Considers all the facts, even opposing views, when making a decision.

4-H Activity in Fairness—Talk-Through Target Practice

Objective-For one group member to receive feedback & directions from others in order to be successful.

Materials-Small balls, buckets & blindfolds

Description-Divide the group into teams of two or more. Give each team a blindfold & a pile of balls. Set up one or more buckets to be used as targets & make a line on the floor for people to throw from. Each team selects one person to be the blindfolded thrower, who stands behind the line & is given one ball at a time. They must try to toss the ball into the target, getting a point for each successful toss. The tosser's teammate give him/her feedback after each throw to help guide the next throw.

Discussion-Was it easier to the thrower or the direction giver? Why? Was patience a factor at all during this activity? How well did you do with it? Do you ever rely on directions from others? Why or why not?

Clover Connection

- Head - think about what really is fair.
- Heart- not taking more than what is our fair share from others.
- Hands - using fairness when we work with others.
- Health - treating everyone the same, even when we're dealing with our own challenges.

"What is popular is not always right, and what is right is not always popular."

People of Character

Rosa Parks, an African American seamstress and civil rights activist, struck a pivotal blow for equality in 1955 when she violated city segregation laws in Alabama by refusing to surrender her bus seat to a white man. Her immediate arrest promoted thousands of blacks to boycott the bus system. The US Supreme Court ultimately declared segregating bus seating unconstitutional, which sparked the movement ending legal segregation in American. Nationally recognized as the "Mother of Modern Day Civil Rights Movement". Rosa Parks courageous stand for fair treatment inspired the world. After her death in 2005, she became the first woman in history to lie in state in the US Capital. Her casket was put on display for two days allowing the nation to pay it's respects.

Lesson in Fairness—Has there ever been a time when you've witnessed someone being treated unfairly or perhaps experienced unfair treatment yourself? Did you take a stand in this situation?

Attention Livestock Members

Starting this year you will be required to turn in a record book for your livestock for the current year, in order to sell in the sale next year.

If you are showing an animal through 4-H you will be required to turn in a portfolio for the current 4-H year to the Extension Office by September 14, 2015.

If you are showing an animal through FFA you will be required to turn in an FFA record book for your animal to your Ag Teacher by January 1, 2016.

For questions or concerns please contact the 4-H office or your Ag Advisor.

For example: If you turn in a record book/portfolio for the 2015 year, you will be allowed to sell your animals at the 2016 fair.

If you do not turn in your record book for the 2015 year, you will not be allowed to sell an animal at the 2016 fair.
