June Newsletter

Sheridan County 4-H

Sheridan County 4-H Families,

I hope you all have heard by now, but we are ON for County Fair this summer! I know many of you (myself included) have been worried about how it will all play out. Our office staff as well as volunteers are working to make the necessary modifications required. But, YAY!

Also, our office is still closed to the public but we would like to help in any way possible. If you need our assistance, don't hesitate to call and we will make arrangements.

Fair entries will be open soon, so be on the look out for emails and social media posts.

 Emily Swinger

COUNTY FAIR

Are we still having County Fair?

Yes! But it will look slightly different this year.

- No camping on the fair grounds
- No housing animals on site- shows will be jackpot style
- You will have the option to show out of your trailer or use a stall for the day

*Can I still sell
my animals?*

Absolutely! Our Youth
Livestock Sale will still happen Monday night.

- All consigned animals will return the night of sale
- Sale will occur in the big arena
- You can still sell 3 head total, two of the same species

Can I still show off my static exhibits?

You bet! Static exhibits will still be judged on Tuesday.

- This year, interview judging is optional
- If you choose to not judge face to face, then your entry must be accompanied by a completed description card (like state fair)
- Interviews will most likely be outside on the Exhibit Hall lawn under tents

Can I still enter Fabric & Fashion?

Of course! The judging portion will just look a little different.

- Construction Judging will be held on Tuesday with all other static judging
- Contestants must submit a video for the modeling portion explaining what they made
